

Discovery Museum Visitor Code of Conduct

Discovery Museum is a place that children and their adults experience together to discover the joys of science, nature, and play. We appreciate your support to help us uphold our mission of sparking delight in learning by igniting curiosity and creativity.

While on the Discovery Museum campus, we require all visitors to adhere to the following Code of Conduct:

Be kind and considerate

Please be respectful of others, model positive behavior, and assume good intentions by others.

Engage in considerate activity

Please utilize our exhibits and spaces in a safe and courteous way so that all visitors can enjoy them.

Stay together to have fun

Discovery Museum is intended for children and their adults to enjoy together. Please stay with your children at all times and help them make choices that are appropriate for their age and ability.

We expect all Museum visitors to:

- Wear shirt, bottoms, and shoes at all times
- Not display profane, obscene, or injurious language or graphics
- Not use offensive, abusive, threatening, or violent language or behavior
- Not bring weapons of any kind to our campus
- Not possess, use, or sell alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs
- Not smoke, vape, or use cannabis anywhere on our campus
- Not bring pets. Service animals are always welcome

Discovery Museum reserves the right to refuse admission, revoke membership, or remove any person who violates this code of conduct or exhibits disruptive behavior that, in our judgement, may damage property or harm, cause offense to, or disrupt the enjoyment by other visitors.

Revised February 2023